

The FCC should adopt the laws and rules for their DO NOT CALL registry. I am on the national do not call registry and I still get telemarketing calls from companies I have dealt with over two years ago or never dealt with. I am now putting myself on the New Jersey list. Make it harder for telemarketers not easier.